

Regulator Leadership Cohort (RLC)

David Parker AM - Chair and CEO of the Clean Energy Regulator

---

Mr Parker has over 20 years-experience in economics, public administration and policy and regulatory matters.

Before joining CER, Mr Parker was Deputy Secretary at the Department of Agriculture and Water Resources, the Department of Environment and Energy, and Treasury. He also worked at the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development in Paris.

Mr Parker has qualifications in economics and law. He has been a Member of the Order of Australia since 2012.

Nerida O'Loughlin PSM - Chair and Agency Head, Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA)

---

Current Chair and Agency Head of the Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA) since 2017.

Prior to this appointment, Nerida served as interim CEO of the Digital Transformation Agency from 2016 to 2017 leading the establishment of the new Agency.

From 2011-2016, Nerida was a Deputy Secretary in the Department of Communications and the Arts providing policy advice across telecommunications, broadcasting, online content and the arts. This included responsibility for major projects, including successfully leading the Digital Television Switchover Program from 2011 to 2013.

Clare Savage - Chair at Australian Energy Regulator

---

Clare Savage was appointed Chair of the Australian Energy Regulator in September 2019 and is a member of the Energy Security Board.

Over the last 21 years Clare has acquired significant leadership experience in the Australian energy industry. She has a passion for the energy sector and a commitment to its development, particularly through this current transition.

Prior to joining the AER, Clare was Deputy Chair of the Energy Security Board. Prior to joining the ESB, Clare was an Executive Director at the Business Council of Australia.

From 2012 to 2015 Clare held senior executive positions within EnergyAustralia spanning corporate strategy; business development; policy & government affairs; and public affairs. Prior to this Clare held several roles at the Energy Supply Association of Australia including Chief Executive Officer. Clare commenced her career in the public service – initially in the UK and then at the Federal Department of the Treasury.

Clare has a Bachelor of Commerce (Economics) and a Bachelor of Arts (Politics and History) from The University of Melbourne and is a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

John Lonsdale PSM - Chair of Australian Prudential Regulation Authority

---

John Lonsdale PSM was appointed as Chair of APRA on 31 October 2022 after originally joining as Deputy Chair on 8 October 2018.

In his Deputy Chair role, John was responsible for oversight of Australia's banking sector. His responsibilities also included oversight of APRA's work on culture and remuneration, building APRA's crisis resolution capability and strengthening APRA's collaboration with peer regulators.

John worked for Australian Treasury for over 30 years prior to joining APRA. He was a member of Treasury's Executive and, in his role as Deputy Secretary, Markets Group, he had responsibility for financial system, consumer and foreign investment policy. In 2014 he led the Secretariat to the Financial System Inquiry based in Sydney. John also worked across key areas in the Treasury including budget policy, tax policy, retirement incomes and the financial system.

Joseph Longo - Chair and Accountable Authority

---

Joe Longo commenced as ASIC Chair on 1 June 2021.

He has held senior leadership roles over four decades in corporate law, financial services, regulation and law enforcement, in Australia and some of the world's most important financial markets.

He was the general counsel for Deutsche Bank in London and Hong Kong for 17 years, providing leadership across regulatory issues, governance, corporate law and non-financial risk.

Before that, Joe was the national director of enforcement at ASIC between 1996 and 2001, and responsible for the coordination and direction of all enforcement and litigation activities.

Saxon Rice - Chief Executive Officer at Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA)

---

CEO Saxon Rice has extensive experience across the VET and employment services sectors as well as the public policy process. Ms Rice previously held a range of senior government, VET and management positions, and was Assistant Minister for Technical and Further Education in the former Queensland Government from 2012 to 2015, and Chair of the then Ministerial Industry Commission responsible for industry engagement.

Ms Rice is a former Director of Global Business Development for an Australian employment services company and was responsible for significant growth into new countries in the European and Asian markets. Ms Rice has also served in a range of Senate Committee Secretariats, including as Acting Secretary and Principal Research Officer to the Senate Foreign Affairs, Defence and Trade Committee. More recently, she was a Member of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal from 2016 to 2018 and is a Member and Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Ms Rice commenced as a Commissioner of ASQA on 16 April 2018, before being appointed as Chief Commissioner and CEO (initially Acting) on 7 October 2019. With effect from 1 January 2021, Ms Rice was appointed CEO for a period of five years.

---

Rob Heferen - Commissioner of Taxation

Current Commissioner of Taxation at the Australian Taxation Office.

Experienced public servant with 10 plus years as deputy secretary (and over 20 years in the SES) across five portfolios: treasury, health, energy, education and Indigenous policy. Expert in policy, program delivery and data analytics.

Proven leader of people with an open, collaborative and authentic style and strong record of achievement in leading organisations to help shape and deliver on Government priorities.

---

Pip Spence PSM - CEO/Director of Aviation Safety at Civil Aviation Safety Authority

Pip Spence commenced as the CEO and DAS on 17 May 2021.

Before joining CASA, Pip was the Chief Operating Officer and Deputy Secretary for the Arts at the Department of Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development, Communications and the Arts. Before that she was the Deputy Secretary for Transport. In this role, Pip was responsible for aviation and airport policy and program matters.

Pip has held senior leadership roles across the Australian Public Service. This includes:

Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet the then Department of Broadband, Communications and the Digital Economy.

In that role Pip was closely involved in establishing the National Broadband Network and the associated reform of telecommunications regulations.

---

Adjunct Professor Tony Lawler - Deputy Secretary, Health Products Regulation Group

Professor Tony Lawler is the Deputy Secretary of the Health Products Regulation Group which works to safeguard and enhance the health of all Australians through effective, timely and risk-proportionate regulation of therapeutic goods, and the control of drug imports, exports and production.

Prior to joining the Department in June 2023, Tony was the Chief Medical Officer and Deputy Secretary of Clinical Quality, Regulation and Accreditation with the Tasmanian Department of Health. This role included providing leadership to health professionals, system-wide clinical governance oversight, and the regulation of private health services.

---

Dr Sandra Cuthbert – CEO, Food Standards Australia New Zealand

Dr Sandra Cuthbert was appointed Chief Executive Officer of FSANZ on 31 March 2022 to 31 March 2027.

Sandra has extensive leadership, policy, corporate governance and stakeholder engagement experience across the public and private sectors. She has held senior roles with the Australian Government departments of the Prime Minister and Cabinet, Finance and Agriculture and Water Resources, as well as Food Standards Australia New Zealand (FSANZ).

Sandra brings a practical understanding of the complex environment that FSANZ operates within, drawing on her experience managing the agency's stakeholder engagement, corporate and food safety functions between 2018 and 2021. She has a reputation for delivering outcomes on complex and time critical projects, most recently as the Assistant Secretary, Commonwealth-State Relations at PM&C.

Sandra has post graduate qualifications in science and law and is a graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Anna Booth - Fair Work Ombudsman

---

Anna Booth was appointed to the position of Fair Work Ombudsman for a 5-year term from 1 September 2023.

Under the Fair Work Act 2009, Anna is responsible for promoting harmonious, productive, cooperative and compliant workplace relations.

Anna has extensive and diverse experience in industrial relations spanning more than 45 years, working with unions, private and public sectors. Anna was most recently Director of CoSolve Pty Ltd. She returned to CoSolve in 2020 after serving as a Deputy President of the Fair Work Commission for eight years. Before her appointment to the Fair Work Commission, Anna combined her CoSolve directorship with non-executive directorships of ME Bank and IFM and was the non-executive chair of Slater & Gordon Ltd.

Anna spent much of her early career in the union movement. She was the National Secretary of the Textile, Clothing and Footwear Union of Australia and a Vice President of the Australian Council of Trade Unions.

Josh Thomas - Chief Executive Officer, Great Barrier Reef Marine Park Authority

---

Mr Thomas has been the Chief Executive Officer of the Great Barrier Reef Marine Park Authority since 2019.

With experience in the public and private sectors, in Australia and overseas, he has worked in a number of senior roles across the environment, agriculture and finance portfolios.

Mr Thomas is an experienced leader, strategist and communicator with a passion for tackling complex policy challenges and working in the public interest.

Mr Thomas is a member of, and contributor to, several professional associations. He lives in Townsville and holds a Master of Business Administration, Master of International Affairs, Bachelor of Science, and Bachelor of Arts (Honours).

Adam Fennessy PSM - Secretary, Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry

Adam Fennessy PSM is the Secretary of the Australian Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry.

Adam has more than 25 years of public sector experience at federal and state levels, including four years as Secretary (CEO) of the Victorian Department of Environment & Primary Industries and the Department of Environment, Land, Water & Planning. Adam was the Victorian Public Sector Commissioner in 2020-2022 and the Dean & CEO of the Australia and New Zealand School of Government (ANZSOG) in 2023. Adam has worked in the private sector as a partner with global advisory firm Ernst & Young.

Adam has served on several boards including the Institute of Public Administration Australia (IPAA) (Victoria) and Infrastructure Victoria.

Rachel Parry – Deputy Secretary, Department of Climate Change, Energy, the Environment and Water

Rachel Parry leads the group responsible for Nature Positive Approvals, environmental permitting and compliance, establishing the future EPA, international environment policy, oceans and Great Barrier Reef policy, and world, national and Indigenous cultural heritage.

She returned to the APS in June 2023 after being seconded to NSW Treasury as the Deputy Secretary responsible for energy, climate change and sustainability within the Office of Energy and Climate Change.

Since 2010, Rachel has held various SES positions across policy, program and corporate areas within the Australian Government including driving energy reforms, protecting the Great Barrier Reef and leading communication and ministerial services.

---

Michael Schwager - Director General at IP Australia

As Director General since 2018, Michael has led IP Australia on a customer-focused, digital-first strategy. As well as seeing unprecedented growth in IP rights during the pandemic, IP Australia has been a test bed of public sector innovation and digital transformation.

Prior to his appointment, Michael spent three years as Chief Operating Officer at the Department of Industry, Innovation and Science. He also spent time as acting Chief Operating Officer at CSIRO.

Michael's career across industry, innovation and science policy has included responsibility for implementing innovation programs including the $3B R&D tax incentive; developing med-tech, pharma-bio, small business and industry policy; attracting foreign investment into Australian high-tech industries; leading trade and multilateral negotiations in food, agriculture and energy.

---

Caron Beaton-Wells - Dean and CEO, Australia and New Zealand School of Government

Professor Beaton-Wells is an internationally distinguished academic leader, committed to the role of education and research for a sustainable future and with a track record in leading major organisational change through innovation and high performing, collaborative and inclusive culture.

Caron is currently Dean and CEO at the Australia and New Zealand School of Government. She is also an honorary Professorial Fellow of the University of Melbourne and a lay member of the Australian Competition Tribunal.

Gina Cass-Gottlieb - Chair of the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission

Gina Cass-Gottlieb commenced her 5-year appointment as Chair of the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) on 21 March 2022.

Before she joined the ACCC Gina was a senior and founding partner of Gilbert and Tobin's competition and regulation team. Gina has over 25 years' experience advising on a large number of merger, competition and regulatory matters in Australia and New Zealand. She is widely recognised as one of Australia's leading competition and regulatory experts.

Gina was appointed by the Commonwealth Treasurer to the Reserve Bank of Australia's Payments System Board in 2013. She was re-appointed in 2018 and again in 2023 for a further 5 year term.

Dr Melissa McEwen, Acting CEO and Board member

Dr Melissa McEwen was appointed Acting Chief Executive Officer in July 2023. Dr McEwen is an experienced regulator and senior executive who has held a range of roles across government. Her experience includes regulatory reform and operations across the areas of live animal exports, First Nations heritage protection, environment protection, VET Student Loans and skills recognition leading Trades Recognition Australia. She also has extensive international experience including leading the Australian delegation at the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Flora and Fauna CoP19 and multiple international engagements in vocational education and skills including APEC and the East Asian Summit.

Dr McEwen is committed to improving regulatory outcomes and building capability. She has a PhD in cultural history from the Australian National University. Dr McEwen has a strong interest in the agriculture sector and is looking forward to leading the APVMA.

Janet Anderson PSM – Commissioner, Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission

---

Janet became Commissioner in January 2019.

Janet has over 20 years of experience in health and aged care policy, strategy and planning. Janet's career has encompassed federal, state and territory agencies. Janet has held roles with the NSW Health Department and the Commonwealth Departments of Veterans Affairs and Health.

As CEO of the Northern Territory Health Department, Janet led the government's response to the Royal Commission into child protection and youth justice.

In 2009, Janet received a Public Service Medal for health policy development and reform contributions.